Coffee Hour Hosts

Sign up at the coffee kiosk to be a host for coffee hour. You can make/serve coffee (and heat up water for tea), bring treats, or bring healthy snacks, or even all three if you wish. Maybe you'd like to celebrate an anniversary, a birthday, or any special occasion (I always signed up to host on my kids' baptismal anniversaries to mark the occasion with something special.) Anyone is welcome to help out - and we can show you how the coffee pots work, where the supplies are kept, etc. Contact the church office if you'd like some pointers.

Centering Prayer

Mondays 4:30pm via Zoom In the Christian tradition, Contemplative Prayer is considered to be the pure gift of God - an the opening of mind and heart. Cheryl Kritsch 563-343-0135 facilitates the group which meets via Zoom every Monday (except holidays) at 4:30pm (link emailed in the Weekly Update).

*Return. Renew. Receive. Restore.
To You, through faith by grace adore.
On knees we seek your face, O Lord.
Return. Renew, Repent.
Lent.*

Confession & Forgiveness*

Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who forgives all our sin, whose mercy endures forever. Amen. Let us confess our sin before God, who removes our guilt and blots out all offenses. (Silence is kept for reflection.)

Gracious God,

have mercy on us according to your steadfast love.

For seeking worldly delights that deceive us and dishonor you: Gracious God,
have mercy on us according to your steadfast love.

For desiring self-reliance instead of hungering for your word: Gracious God,
have mercy on us according to your steadfast love.

For failing to recognize your coming reign, and for hindering the work of the Spirit: Gracious God,
have mercy on us according to your steadfast love.

For drawing from the well of self-serving ambition, and for disdaining the living water Christ offers: Gracious God,
have mercy on us according to your steadfast love.

For disregarding voices from the margin, and for distrusting signs of your healing and hope in the world: Gracious God,
have mercy on us according to your steadfast love.

For dwelling in tombs of self-pity and discontent, and for disregarding Christ's call to come forth to life: Gracious God,
have mercy on us according to your steadfast love.

God's steadfast love, grace, and forgiveness abound. Through faith, the free gift of God, you have been clothed in the righteousness of Christ. In the name of † Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. The Spirit of the One who raised Christ from the dead dwells in you, pours God's love into your hearts, and gives you life and peace. Amen.

Opening Hymn*

Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross..... ELW 335

1 Jesus, keep me near the cross, there's a precious fountain;
free to all, a healing stream flows from Calv'ry's mountain.

Refrain

In the cross, in the cross be my glory ever;

till my ransomed soul shall find rest beyond the river.

- 2 Near the cross, a trembling soul,
love and mercy found me;
there the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me. Refrain
- 3 Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me;
help me walk from day to day with its shadow o'er me. Refrain
- 4 Near the cross I'll watch and wait, hoping, trusting ever,
till I reach the golden strand
just beyond the river. Refrain

Text: Fanny J. Crosby, 1820-1915

Greeting*

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

Kyrie*

In peace, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the peace from above, and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.
Lord, have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For this holy house, and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gracious Lord. Amen.

Prayer of the Day*

Let us pray. Merciful God, the fountain of living water, you quench our thirst and wash away our sin. Give us this water always.
Bring us to drink from the well that flows with the beauty of your truth through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Heart & Voice Choir Anthem

A Communion Invitation..... Mary Martin/Joseph M. Martin

*Gentle pilgrim, come and eat, all who hunger, all who need.
Bread is broken for the feast, come and all will be received.
Come and all will be received.*

*Come ye traveler in the night. All who thirst for life divine.
Jesus bids you come and dine. Fill your cup with heaven's wine.
Fill your cup with heaven's wine.*

Bread of comfort, hope of glory, wine of promise, come fill our empty hearts.

*Come ye weary to the Lord. Bread is served and wine is poured.
All your strength will be restored, one in Christ forevermore.
One in Christ forevermore.*

Bread of comfort, hope of glory, wine of promise, come fill our empty hearts.

Children's Message

Scripture Reading | Romans 5:1-11

Though we often hear that God helps those who help themselves, here Paul tells us that through Jesus' death God helps utterly helpless sinners. Since we who had been enemies are reconciled to God in the cross, we now live in hope for our final salvation.

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person – though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. Much more surely, therefore, since we have now been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life. But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Word of God, Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 95

Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before God's presence with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to the Lord with psalms.

For you, Lord, are a great God, and a great ruler above all gods.

In your hand are the caverns of the earth; the heights of the hills are also yours.

The sea is yours, for you made it, and your hands have molded the dry land.

Come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord our maker.

For the Lord is our God, and we are the people of God's pasture and the sheep of God's hand.
Oh, that today you would hear God's voice!

"Harden not your hearts, as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert.
There your ancestors tested me, they put me to the test, though they had seen my works.

Forty years I loathed that generation, saying, 'The heart of this people goes astray; they do not know my ways.'
Indeed I swore in my anger, 'They shall never come to my rest.' "

Holy Gospel* | John 4:5-42

The Holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus defies convention to engage a Samaritan woman in conversation. Her testimony, in turn, leads many others to faith.

Narrator Now when Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard, "Jesus is making and baptizing more disciples than John" (although it was not Jesus himself but his disciples who baptized), he left Judea and started back to Galilee. But he had to go through Samaria.

He came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her,

Jesus Give me a drink.

Narrator His disciples had gone to the city to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him:

Woman How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?

Narrator Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.

Jesus If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.

Woman Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?

Jesus Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.

Woman Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.

Jesus Go, call your husband, and come back.

Woman I have no husband.

Jesus You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true.

Woman Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.

Jesus Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.

Woman I know that Messiah is coming. When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.

Jesus I am he, the one who is speaking to you.

Narrator Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, What do you want? or, Why are you speaking with her?

Narrator Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people:

Woman Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?

Narrator They left the city and were on their way to him. Meanwhile the disciples were urging him:

Disciples: "Rabbi, eat something."

Narrator But he said to them:

Jesus I have food to eat that you do not know about.

Nancy So the disciples said to one another:

Disciples: Surely no one has brought him something to eat?

Jesus My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, 'Four months more, then comes the harvest'? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.

Narrator Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony:

Woman He told me everything I have ever done.

Narrator So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman:

People It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world!

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

Hymn of the Day*

I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say ELW 611

- 1 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "Come unto me and rest;
 lay down, O weary one, lay down your head upon my breast."
 I came to Jesus as I was,
 so weary, worn, and sad;
 I found in him a resting-place,
 and he has made me glad.

- 2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "Behold, I freely give the living water, thirsty one;
 stoop down and drink and live."
 I came to Jesus, and I drank of that life-giving stream;
 my thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 and now I live in him.

- 3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "I am this dark world's light;
 look unto me, your morn shall rise,
 and all your day be bright."
 I looked to Jesus, and I found in him my star, my sun;

and in that light of life I'll walk till trav'ling days are done.

Text: Horatius Bonar, 1808-1889

Apostles' Creed*

Let us proclaim our faith in the words of the Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People*

Let us pray. Reconciled by God's mercy and sustained by God's presence, let us pray for the world and its needs. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Receive our prayers, O God, through Jesus Christ, our strength and salvation. Amen.

Peace* (Please be seated after sharing the peace.)

May the peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Call to Offering (The offering plates will be passed along the pews.)

The season of Lent invites us to better understand and deepen our spiritual covenants, strengthening our spiritual practice of generosity. Let us offer our gifts toward an abundant life and flourishing for all.

Offering Hymn

Create in Me a Clean Heart..... ELW 186

Cre-ate in me a clean heart, O God, and re-new a right spir-it with-in me. Cast me not a-way from your pres-ence, and take not your Ho-ly Spir-it from me. Re-store to me the joy of your sal-va-tion, and up-hold me with your free Spir-it.

Offertory Prayer

Let us pray. O God, maker of heaven and earth, your steadfast love embraces all creation. You send rain and sunshine to nourish the earth and bring forth its bounty. Through these gifts of bread and wine, draw us into the death and life of your Son, who calls us to bear witness to his saving work. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving*

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Lord's Prayer*

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Communion Hymn

Lamb of God ELW p. 154

The image shows the musical notation for the hymn 'Lamb of God'. It consists of four staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

Invitation to Communion

Everyone is welcome to the table. As you are able, please come forward to receive communion at the front of the church. If you prefer juice for communion, it will be clear, and gluten-free wafers are available upon request. If you would prefer a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest.

Prayer After Communion*

Let us pray. God of our salvation, we give you thanks for this meal that restores our souls, reconciles us to you, and strengthens us for the journey. Through the body and blood of your Son, may we become Christ's body in the world, bearing witness to your love for all creation, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Blessing*

Receive the blessing of the holy Trinity: God, who calls all things into existence, Jesus Christ, who redeems us, and the Holy Spirit, whose breath sustains creation, † bless you now and always. Amen.

Closing Song*

Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me..... ELW 623

- 1 Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
 let me hide myself in thee;
 let the water and the blood,
 from thy riven side which flowed,
 be of sin the double cure;
 cleanse me from its guilt and pow'r.

- 2 Not the labors of my hands can fulfill thy law's demands;
 could my zeal no respite know,
 could my tears forever flow,
 all for sin could not atone;
 thou must save, and thou alone.

- 3 Nothing in my hand I bring;
 simply to thy cross I cling.
 Naked, come to thee for dress;
 helpless, look to thee for grace;
 foul, I to the fountain fly;
 wash me, Savior, or I die.

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
when mine eyelids close in death,
when I soar to worlds unknown,
see thee on thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
let me hide myself in thee.

Text: Augustus M. Toplady, 1740-1778

Sending*

Go in peace. Believe the good news.

Thanks be to God!

Postlude

Jesus Christ, Our Blessed Savior Harmonized by David Johnson

Junior Bible Study | Holy Communion

Junior Bible Study is offered for children after the children's sermon during worship at both services. We will return from our time together before communion begins. During Lent, we will be learning about communion during our JBS time and will take the place of a first communion class. If you have a child who you feel is ready to take communion, please speak with either one of the pastors for more info.
